Payment and Deadline: Submission of payment is due upon signing of this agreement. Festival exhibitor space is limited, and applications will be accepted on a first-paid basis. The final deadline for application, required documents, and payment is December 31, 2024.

You must bring your own power cords, tent, tables, and chairs (if not rented from CHA). Make checks payable to: The Celtic Heritage Alliance. There will be a limited number of nonprofit organization exhibition spaces available at a reduced charge. If you desire to rent a tent, you must specify tent size and number of sides if desired. The additional charge for rentals will be provided by January 31, 2025, and payment must be made to CHA no later than February 15, 2025, to ensure the requested tent, tables & chairs is/are provided.

Food Vendors: The standard food vendor space is 10 ft. (frontage) x 20 ft. deep. These spaces will accommodate a 10 x 10 tent and give food vendors who are cooking on-site an additional 10 x 10 space (required) directly behind the tent for cooking. Food vendors agree to post a menu at eye level showing what items are available and the pricing.

Event presenters provide centrally located trash receptacles for standard garbage. Vendors are responsible for discarding their own cooking oil or anything that is not considered regular trash and removing it from the property.

Electricity: Limited electricity is available at Frank Brown Park. If you are requesting electricity, you must specify exactly what you intend to plug into, on the application. There is a $25 fee for electricity. We reserve spaces with electricity for our food vendors, but you must request electricity in your application above. Celtic Heritage Alliance

The Celtic Heritage Alliance is proud to present the Panama City Beach Scottish Festival. We are a 501 (c) (3) non-profit organization dedicated to the preservation, education and promotion of Celtic tradition and culture. Northwest Florida was predominantly settled by Scottish and Irish immigrants. As the Florida Panhandle's only Scottish Festival, we are proud of our ancestors and strive to honor their culture with our festival, fundraisers, and educational events throughout the year.

Our local Scottish Festival was born in 1993 on the grounds of Grace Presbyterian Church in Panama City, Florida. With each passing year, the festival continued to grow until finally a search for a larger location began. In 2016 the festival moved to Frank Brown Park in Panama City Beach. With the extra room, we've added more vendors, more clans, a tea room and a beer tent.
